

Role-Specific Training - Allocation & Context

Introductory support material created from the supplied 13-week training plan. It gives each week a clear session flow, outcomes and lightweight practice.

Week at a glance

Session	Focus	Expected outcome
Session 1	Role Allocation	Understand the assigned role, responsibilities and expected contribution.
Session 2	Business/Technical Area Introduction	Learn the purpose, users and boundaries of the assigned area.
Session 3	Team Context	Understand team structure, stakeholders, ownership and collaboration paths.
Session 4	Learning Expectations	Agree on learning priorities, checkpoints and expected outcomes for the role-specific phase.

Session notes

Session 1: Role Allocation

Session 3: Team Context

Understand team structure, stakeholders, ownership and collaboration paths.

Quick check: Explain the idea in your own words and identify one practical place where it could be used.

Session 4: Learning Expectations

Agree on learning priorities, checkpoints and expected outcomes for the role-specific phase.

Quick check: Explain the idea in your own words and identify one practical place where it could be used.

Practice and reflection

These are lightweight practice prompts for the onboarding prototype, not an official assessment.

1. Write five key terms from this week and explain each in one sentence.
2. Draw a simple flow showing how the main concepts connect.
3. List two questions you would ask the trainer before using these concepts in a real project.
4. Identify one practical example from a utility, software system, workplace process or assigned role.
5. Write an end-of-week summary: what you understood, what remains unclear, and what you want to practise next.

Completion checklist

- ☐ I attended/reviewed the planned sessions.
- ☐ I can explain the week's main concepts at a basic level.
- ☐ I completed at least one practice/reflection activity.
- ☐ I recorded questions or gaps for follow-up.
- ☐ I am ready to proceed to the next onboarding chapter.
